GREETING

Charis Milona has studied and practiced the metaphysical arts for over twenty five years. Her first astrology teacher was Frances Sakoian of the New England School of Astrology. She has trained extensively at the Carroll Righter Foundation in Hollywood and the Manley P. Hall Philosophical Research Society.

Charis believes that the ancient knowledge and wisdom was designed to assist you in living a better life today. By combining skill with faith, her goal is to guide you towards greater awareness and belief in your own magick so that you will act on the natural talents and intuition you were born with, which ultimately contribute to making the world a healthier place for all.

Charis' television show "Journey With Astrology" can be seen on YouTube and Public Access Television locally.
